

Mr. De Mola's
6th Grade History Packet
XIII
Chapters 33-

- 1) What were some of the reasons Ford was able to build a “democratic car” (affordable for all)?

Civic Virtue and Democratic Values

- 2) What plan of Ford's did J.P. Morgan reject?

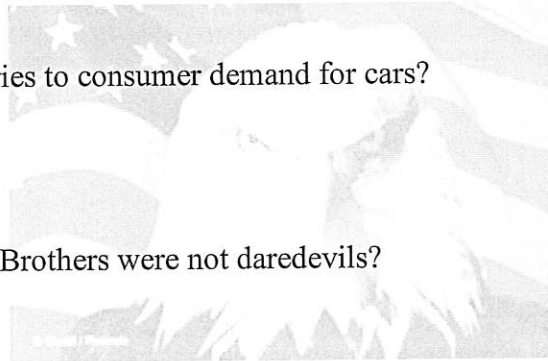

- Freedoms aren't free, and freedom can be very hard. Part of being a good citizen

- 3) How did Ford link his workers' salaries to consumer demand for cars?

- appreciating what democracy has given you. We must hold tightly to the values upon which this country was founded.

- 4) Why does the author say the Wright Brothers were not daredevils?

- Among these basic values are honesty, compassion, patriotism, respect, responsibility, and courage.

- 5) Why did people have trouble believing a flying machine could work?

- 6) What sequence of events led to the Wright Brothers' successful first flight in 1903?

- 7) Why did Teddy Roosevelt encourage Taft to run for President in 1908?

- 8) Why did Teddy oppose Taft in 1912?

9) What was the result of having three candidates run for President in 1912?

10) What does the author say the government began to do in the Gilded Age?

11) What problems were not solved by the Progressives?

Civic Virtue and Democratic Values

12) How did Woodrow Wilson overcome his childhood learning difficulties?

- Freedoms aren't free, and freedom can be very hard. Part of being a good citizen

13) What helped Wilson overcome his shyness?

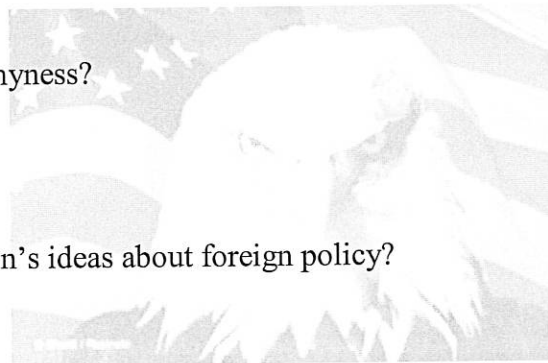

Part of being a good citizen is appreciating what democracy has given you. We must hold tightly to the values upon which this country was founded.

14) What were some of Woodrow Wilson's ideas about foreign policy?

Among these basic values are honesty, compassion, patriotism, respect,

15) How was World War I different from previous wars?

courage.

16) What is conscription? Give examples.

17) What was the Zimmerman Telegram and why is it important?

18) Before the United States entered the war, how did people show their support for the Allies? Give some examples.

19) How was the United States different in 1917 than in the years when Washington and Jefferson warned the nation to stay out of the Old World?

20) Was it practical for the US to enter World War I?

Civic Virtue and Democratic Values

* 21) How did America's entrance into World War I affect the conflict?

Freedom aren't free, and freedom can be very hard. Part of being a good citizen of this country is appreciating what democracy has given you. We must hold tightly to the values upon which this country was founded. Among these basic values are honesty, compassion, patriotism, respect, responsibility, and courage.

