

Mr. De Mola's 6th Grade History Packet V

Chapters 21-27

- 1) What happened on July 4th, 1776?
- 2) What was difficult about signing the Declaration?
- 3) Which delegate was most responsible for getting the others to sign the Declaration?
- 4) What did General Washington's troops do when they heard of the Declaration?
- 5) When King George III heard the delegates signed the Declaration of Independence he remarked gloomily "If it succeeds, none need call it treason." What did he mean by that?
- 6) Some women and the children served on the battle lines during the Revolutionary War. What are some of the things they did?
- 7) How did women who stayed home help out?

- 8) How did the slaves in the Massachusetts win their freedom?
- 9) What did young James Forten have during the war?
- 10) As a prisoner, how did Forten show his courage?
- 11) What were Father Escalante and Father Dominguez looking for?
- 12) Why did European soldiers want to join the Patriots?
- 13) How did many soldiers begin to think of themselves as Americans?
- 14) What two things did Lord Dunmore proclaim?
- 15) How can deception be a powerful weapon?

16) What happened at Norfolk?

17) What happened between Washington's army and the British army at New York?

18) Who were the Hessians?

19) What happened at Saratoga?

20) How did the Patriots beat the British at Fort Edward?